

Week 9 Grade One Schedule

Greetings families. Sorry about the writing for last week.....technical difficulties. Hopefully it will work this week. Please check Google Classroom for writing for Tuesday. Thank you for sending me writing samples. Again, no whole group zoom meetings. I will see everyone for small groups two times as we need to spend time with math.

Monday, June 1

1. Phonics p. 258-261 We are doing the sounds of Y. There are only a few pages in the phonics on this skill....not enough to master it. I will be going over this for the next while in the small zoom meetings. Practise word sorts.
2. Journal writing
3. Math p. 100-103 We are back to numeracy. I will do missing addend with small groups using number line. We will keep reviewing fractions.

Tuesday, June 2

1. Phonics p. 260-264 On p. 264, please add four more things to your list. Word sorts.
2. Writing See Google Classroom
3. Math p. 104-107

Wednesday, June 3

1. Phonics p. 267-271 Keep practising word sorts.
2. Math p. 108-111

Thursday, June 4

1. Writing Listen to <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=FrmZeXf7ScU> The Mixed Up Chameleon. In your green folder, you will find a story frame. The story frame is the one that classifies characters, setting, problem, solution. Just pick five characters and three events. Please complete it and send it to me.
2. No phonics today. I will spend more time on the sounds of Y during the small group meetings.
3. Math p. 112-115

That's the week in a nutshell. Thank you for keeping up with your school work.
You are the best!!!!
