Shout Out

Thank you everyone for volunteering your time for our skating field trip the students had a blast!

Upcoming

February 2-6: During Catholic Schools Week we have a variety of activities as a school. We'll be ending the week with mass at the Cathedral Friday at 10 am and a UNBC basketball game to follow.

February 5: Members of the RCMP will be coming to our class to talk about the internet and how to protect ourselves. An email was sent home, if you have any questions or concerns please email me or Mrs. Barth.

February 13: Our class has chosen to have a Valentines Party in the afternoon. Students are welcome to bring Valentines cards for everyone and snacks. A class list will be sent out closer to the 13th.

Looking Forward

Language Arts: We will be continuing our novel study The Chronicles of Narnia: The lion the witch and the wardrobe, and will still be working on our comprehension and writing skills.

Math: We will be continuing working with decimals and we'll get into money, time and geometry.

Social Studies: Students will be continuing to learn about Canadian Institutions and government and reflect the challenge of our regional diversity.

Science: We will be ending our unit about the human body systems and how they work together.

Art: Students will be participating in a variety of art projects using different materials.

Careers: Students will be learning about a variety of careers.

Health: We'll be starting our health units on our body and changes. (Letter was sent home) We'll be learning about internet safety and cyberbullying

Spelling: Students will continue to have spelling words and tests.

It's hard to believe it's already February—this term is flying by! We've had a great start, with students settling into routines, engaging thoughtfully in their learning, and showing so much curiosity and effort each day. I'm looking forward to all that the rest of the term will bring as we continue to learn, grow, and work together.
