

Kindergarten: Community Helpers

May 18-22

Reading and Writing

- Read through My Book of Community Helpers and color the pictures.
- Complete the “If I was a Community Helper, I would be....because....” We will be dressing up in our Community Helper of choice for Friday’s class and sharing our pictures and writing.
- I will be posting a video on Google Classroom this week about Community Helpers. Have your child view it and comment on 1 fact they remember from the video.

Spelling

- Vet, hat, spoon, shoes, vest (I will be asking them these words as a bonus on Friday)

Math

- Sort it Out! Cut and paste which objects, numbers and addition sentences belong in the 0 and 1 column.
- Snippin and Orderin, as a challenge, I have included many sequencing worksheets that are in the higher numbers range if you think your child is ready.
- Count and Trace
- What number comes next?
- Color the number words

Science and Socials

- Cut and paste I am a Community Helper worksheet.
- Write the correct label and color your Community Helper of choice, the options this week are a Crossing Guard, Plumber, Chef and a Doctor.

Religion

- Look at Romans 8:14 verse, “For those who are led by the Spirit of God are children of God. Ask your child, what does it mean to be led by God? How does God lead us? Trace and color this verse.

Art

- Using water color paints or crayons if you do not have any, draw and paint or color a picture of the community helper your child would like to be when they grow up.
- I have also posted below a project I would like to start with my daughter, feel free to do it as well if it interests you😊
